RAILROADS ARE NOW IN-PASS-ABLE.

A TRIP through Missouri was too much even for James G. Blaine's robust health.

The governor didn't have a "solid six" on the grand jury like he had in the territorial council.

CHICAGO has done well in clearing out the most corrupt set of office holders that ever disgraced a city.

It is no wonder the "Mikado" wants to figure as complainant in a libel suit. He has had plenty of provocation.

If our legislators would only enact some measure to enforce laws already existing, they might very profitably leave new law making alone.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND has for once followed the instructions of his party platform and appointed Eugene Semple, a resident of Washington Territory, as its governor.

The citizens of Chicago have done nobly. They have turned rascals out that have long disgraced the municipal offices. But it took the best men of both parties to do it.

The janitor of a bank in New Jersey has decamped to Canada with several thousand dollars of the bank's funds. New Jersey seems to be a breeding ground for frauds.

HAVING imported himself as a Mexican refugee into Arizona, the Mikado would now like to import Mexican laws and his own Lord High Executioner, Tom Farish, administer them.

The organs of the territorial administration are complaining that certain lies are being told about the governor. They needn't worry themselves about the lies, its the truth his excellency is afraid of.

HENRY MOORE, the anarchist, has been released from jail, unfortunately for the peace and well being of the community. In his first incendiary speech he described his incarceration as "ten months without beer."

A LOT in New York sold last week for $145 per square foot. The total price was $356,000. The whole of Manhattan Island, on which the city is built was originally purchased by the Knickerbocker settlers for $25.

THE whole political creed of the Tombstone Democrat seems to be—Blindly adhere to the boss of the party, vote early and often, and abuse every body that differs from you.

Does Governor Zulick imagine that he is given control of territorial money for the purpose of rewarding his friends and withholding it from his proper channels to punish his enemies?

A CONTEMPORARY says: "Mr. L. C. Hughes, of the Tucson Star, is now placed in the unenviable position of a political outcast." Mr. Hughes is to be congratulated at being "fired" out of anything that is run by Zulick, Farish & Co.

SULLIVAN, the seismic slugger, last week paid a visit to President Cleveland. No doubt he thought himself the bigger man of the two, as he claims to be champion of the world, while Cleveland is only president of the United States.

THE Tucson Star says that seven Arizona journals refused to publish the Tom Farish "slush," which was called an open letter. If we are not mistaken there were ten journals who refused to publish it and who had the manhood not to be bribed or coerced by such a "thing" as the author.

THE Silver Belt, of Globe, has completed its ninth year of existence and we congratulate it and wish it many more prosperous birthdays. It is an ably conducted journal, vigorous and honest in its opinions on all questions of public policy. May its editor continue in his life of usefulness until he is ninety and nine.

ZULICK'S DEFENDERS.

The Tombstone "Democrat" in an article which purports to be a criticism of an article that appeared in the Arizona "Silver Belt," takes occasion to make an attack upon what it terms "the combination, with the astute Mr. Trippel at its head, which virtually controlled the legislation of the house." The Democrat says:

"What this noted band of legislative jobbers would have accomplished is beyond the speculation of any honest man, but for the fact that the governor with his veto stood in the pathway. It is better to be just in these matters, even if Gila's 'kindergarten statesman' suffers by the comparison."

Who constituted this band of what the Democrat calls "jobbers"? They were the best men of both political parties, who combined and acted together as the only means of defeating another combination known as the governor's henchmen, of which the proprietor of the Democrat was a distinguished member. This clique blindly went in whatever direction the governor's finger pointed, and had it not been for the efforts of Mr. Trippel and those associated with him, the record of the fourteenth legislature would have been a great deal worse than it now is.

The statements that the governor's veto saved the legislature from the machinations of this desperate band led by their youthful chief from Gila, is as nonsensical as it is untrue. Governor Zulick only vetoed two bills; one—the judges salary bill—was a measure he had suggested himself in his message to the legislature, and which his "pocket members" had voted for. The other was the lottery bill, the passage of which he had secretly encouraged, that he might have the opportunity of appearing before the public as an expounder of political morality. Other arguments might have influenced Mr. Zulick in vetoing the lottery bill, but we only charge him with inordinate vanity in desiring to appear as an instructor of principles which he himself has been conspicuous for violating.

The "Democrat" seems to delight in calling the representative from Gila "a kindergarten statesman," presumably, on account of his youthfulness. Is it a crime to be young? once asked a famous statesman, who ruled a mighty empire, before he was thirty years of age. Better to be young and honest than old and corrupt. To be a well matured fool is a personal misfortune, and when such a one is elected to a legislature or appointed to an office it is a public calamity.

THE two Prescott dailies having become tired of quarreling and abusing each other about politics, territorial printing, Tommy and Zuly's executive trickery and other kindred subjects are now engaged in a tiff regarding the efficacy of each other's praying power. It seems that the Courier has been praying for rain in that thirsty land without avail. But the other day the Journal-Miner offered up a very simple petition for rain when lo, behold! the next day it watered the earth. The Courier, disgusted at the inefficiency of its own prayers, says it was only a few drops. Still, it seems, there was some rain. The facts of the matter probably are, that the editor of the Journal-Miner was smarter than his rival and got in his prayerful work when he saw a probability of the rain coming. He may have remembered the story of a certain smart Yankee Deacon. The minister said to him as he was ascending the pulpit stairs one Sunday: "I shall pray for rain this morning, Deacon," when the Deacon hurriedly whispered: "No, no you mustn't parson. The wind ain't in the right direction."

GOVERNOR ZULICK'S defender, the Tombstone "Democrat," says: The "Star" states what is positively untrue when it says: "The last territorial council didn't keep a regular journal." It then goes on to explain that Mr. Driscoll, the chief clerk, kept a journal of the proceedings, which he refuses to give up. It seems Mr. Driscoll kept the journal in more senses than one. He kept the book first, by making entries in it, and he has kept it since by gluing himself to it and refusing to part unless he gets a money consideration from the territory, of $100.00. Now if the journal that Mr. Driscoll sets this value on is the property of the council, that gentleman has stolen it. If this is the case why not arrest him for larceny and regain possession of the important volume. The fact is the council kept no official journal, and the "Democrat" is wasting time and type in trying to prove that it did. But Mr. Driscoll saw his chance of "turning an honest penny" and kept the record, and he seems likely to still keep it; unless the secretary of the territory hands over that hundred dollars.

A MEMBER of the Virginia legislature has hit upon a novel plan to aid the cause of temperance. He proposes that every person who drinks in a saloon shall take out a license which shall cost him one dollar annually, and a saloon keeper selling drinks to any man not having such a license will make himself liable to a fine of fifty dollars. The proposition is, of course ridiculous, to compel a man to pay a license for the privilege of buying what another man pays a license to sell. But the Virginian statesman is not after revenue or equity. He is a temperance man who thinks that the great evil of whiskey drinking can be remedied by insisting that public drinkers shall bear the odium of obtaining and carrying a tipping license and that many will abstain rather than do this. The gentlemen are probably a well meaning, but misguided crank.

ACCOUNTS concerning the loss of cattle on the northwestern territories are very conflicting, some reports claiming that it is very trifling, others that it is enormous. A correspondent of the Chicago Inter Ocean says: "There is no doubt but that fully one-half of the cattle on the ranges throughout Montana have died during the past severe winter. There is not a single range but the death toll is fully that great, and a great many will reach 75 per cent. With the sheep and horses the loss is not so heavy as among cattle, but the loss is great. Among horses and sheep on the same range it is reported half of the horses have died and that the sheep are dying by the hundreds." Our cattlemen in Arizona have reason to feel thankful for the winter's practically over and their loss has been insignificant, not 5 per cent.

THE Tucson Star charges the governor with publishing proclamations of reward for the arrest of criminals in other counties than where the crime was committed, when the proprietor of the newspaper where it should be published is personally or politically opposed to him. The Star states that in the cases of Manuel Gonzales, accused of a murder committed in Tucson, also the case of the murder of Con Ryan, of Cochise county, in both of which rewards of $500 are offered. The notice has only appeared in newspapers published in other counties. This is a disgraceful proceeding because in addition to showing petty maliciousness it is calculated to defeat the ends of justice.

THERE is quite a commotion in the new county of San Juan, New Mexico, regarding the location of the county seat and the selection of officers. The case is a peculiar one. A few minutes before the adjournment of the last legislature, Mr. Chavez called up a bill in the house, framed to provide for a county seat and temporary officers until the people could vote upon the matter at the next election. The bill was lost by a vote of 11 to 11. This did not affect the bill creating the county which had passed both houses previously. It merely left the appointment of the temporary officers and the selection of the temporary county seat in the hands of the governor. The action of the legislature in creating the county out of a portion of Rio Arriba county makes no figure in the present fight, which is entirely over the appointments made by the governor, in consequence of the supplementary bill providing for these appointments, being lost, as stated. The attorney general holds that the action of the governor, regarding both officials and county seat must stand until the next election and at the same time he affirms the right of a territorial legislature to create a new county and to select its officers and county seat.

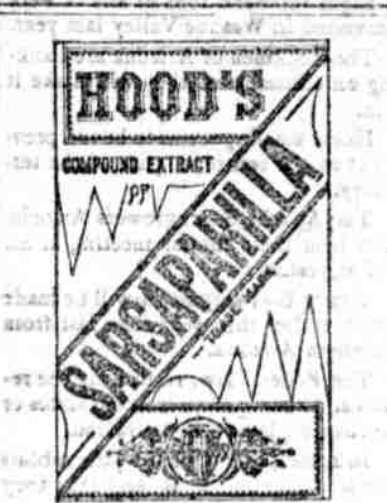

A SOUTHERN paper calls attention to the fact that while the New York "Sun" and the "Courier-Journal" collide often and more vigorously on public questions than any other prominent newspapers, they both manage to keep up a kindly and gentle courtship towards each other.

And why should they not? In newspaperdom as in matrimony only "Days delight to bark and bite." And whenever language carrying angry and personal allusions with it, appears in a newspaper from one editor to another editor, set it down for a certainty that the editor is a dog.

OUR stockgrowers have had a fortunate winter. There has been an abundant supply of grass in the valleys, the weather has been mild and the mortality from all causes very small. Cattle were never in better condition at this time of year and the fear that this coming summer would be too dry has been happily dispelled by the generous fall of snow in the mountains during the past week, which will furnish ample water until the early fall rains come. The cattle men of Northern Arizona may congratulate themselves that they are far better off and their stock in finer condition than it is in any other portion of the range country.

It is a curious fact. That the body is now more susceptible to benefit from medicine than at any other season. Hence the importance of taking Hood's Sarsaparilla now, when it will do you the most good. It is really wonderful for purifying and enriching the blood, creating an appetite, and giving a healthy tone to the whole system. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla which is peculiar to itself.

The importance of purifying the blood cannot be overestimated, for without pure blood you cannot enjoy good health. At this season nearly every one needs a good medicine to purify, vitalize, and enrich the blood, and we ask you to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. It strengthens and builds up the system, creates an appetite, and tones the digestion, while it eradicates disease. The peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation of the vegetable remedies used give to Hood's Sarsaparilla peculiar curative powers. No other medicine has such a record of wonderful cures. If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other instead. It is a Peculiar Medicine, and is worthy your confidence. Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold by all druggists. Prepared by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

I have treated during the past year, which have been cured by the use of the Treatment, and several of these cases were in the last stages. The composition of the different medicines contained in the Treatment immediately restore those weakened by early care, and its effects prove it to be a specific of nervous and sexual power. You brain. A number of physicians have disapproved of its use, but I have used it in every case, and it has cured all the hypochondria, Biliousness and phosphorus formulas, and invariably prescribes it. There are no many nearly worthless proprietary medicines of this kind on the market (and every day is adding to their number) medicines most agreeable to the taste and well tolerated by the stomach.
